

Open Discussion:

私の言葉の使いわけ

社会のグローバル化が進み、バイリンガルと言われる二言語話者だけではなく、マルチリンガルである多言語話者も増えてきました。特に英語非母語話者の中に、自分の母語、母語のほかの変種(例、方言)、英語、第3、第4外国語のように、複数の言語を日常的に使う人も少なくありません。

今学期のオープンディスカッションでは、本学で日本語を学んでいる留学生をお迎えして、それぞれに来日前と来日後の言語環境がどのように変化したか、どのように自分の持っている言語能力と価値観に基づいて言葉を使い分けて日本での留学生活を送っているかについて話題提供をしていただきます。

参加者は今までの外国語の学習経験、または留学経験を振り返って、カジュアルな雰囲気の中で留学生と一緒に外国語学習の意義や、多文化社会の行方について考えてみましょう。

Cassandra Louise Lotivio

Hi! I am Cassandra, an exchange student from New Zealand although I am ethnically Filipino. I graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from the University of the Philippines Diliman, and I am currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Japanese Language at the Auckland Institute of Technology (AUT). I have been formally studying Japanese for almost two years now. I can also speak English and Tagalog. I enjoy reading manga, watching anime, and listening to music.

Manuel Marquez Lara

Hello. My name is Manuel Márquez Lara. I am a student from Cordoba, Spain, and my major is East Asia Studies at the University of Seville. In the university, I also learn Chinese and Japanese. In fact, I have been always interested in learning languages, so until now I have been studying English, French, German, Japanese and Chinese (besides Spanish). My hobbies are sports, traveling, music and reading.

Laura Canca Portilla

Hi! My name is Laura and I am from Spain. I am currently studying Japanese and Chinese at the University of Seville in the East Asia Studies major. I have been learning English since I was 7-8 and I some years ago I studied French too. My hobbies are mainly drawing and watercolors, playing the guitar and traveling.

Miriam Isabelle Nilsson

Hej! My name is Miriam and I'm from the south of Sweden. My interest in Japan started back in my early teens through manga and games. I really loved the Japanese songs I heard in anime and since I also liked to sing, I became interested in learning the language. In my free time I enjoy watching movies, spending time with friends, shopping and occasionally getting way too much into a video game!

Shin Shin (甄真)

Hi! My name is Shin. I'm an exchange student from Dalian University in China and my major is Japanese. I actually have been living in Beijing for more than 15 years so I'm fluent in Mandarin and Beijing dialect. Since my hometown is Inner Mongolia, I speak Inner Mongolia dialect, too. I also speak English, Japanese and some other dialects in China. I'm currently studying Spanish.
